

The following is an excerpt from the College of Engineering's statement on Ethics, Professionalism, and Conduct of Engineering Students. The note is a modification appropriate for Computer Science and Engineering courses. Read the statement carefully, sign the bottom, tear off the bottom and return it to your lab instructor.

STATEMENT ON ETHICS, PROFESSIONALISM, AND CONDUCT OF ENGINEERING STUDENTS
COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING
THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT ARLINGTON

The College cannot and will not tolerate any form of academic dishonesty by its students. This includes, but is not limited to, 1) cheating on an examination, 2) plagiarism, or 3) collusion.

Definitions:

- A. Cheating on an examination includes:
1. Copying from another's paper, any means of communication with another during an examination, giving aid to or receiving aid from another during an examination;
 2. Using any material during an examination that is unauthorized by the proctor;
 3. Taking or attempting to take an examination for another student or allowing another student to take or attempt to take an examination for oneself;
 4. Using, obtaining, or attempting to obtain by any means the whole or any part of a not-yet-administered examination.
- B. Plagiarism is the unacknowledged incorporation of another's work into work which the student offers for credit.
- C. Collusion is the unauthorized collaboration of another in preparing work that a student offers for credit.

Note:

- A. The use in your program, even temporarily, of the source code of another person's program is considered plagiarism.
- B. Allowing another person to use your source code, even temporarily, is considered collusion.
- C. The computer account assigned to you must be used for your work in this course and only for this course. Your grade will be based in part on your ability to complete the assignments within any limitations imposed. Therefore, unauthorized use of a computer account is considered scholastically dishonest.
- D. In this class, the specific exceptions given below are not considered scholastically dishonest acts:
1. Discussion of the algorithm and general programming techniques used to solve a problem.
 2. Giving and receiving aid in debugging.
 3. Discussion and comparison of program output.
